Best-selling author will be Good Hart writer-in-residence next month

The Good Hart Artist Residency announced best-selling author, Angie Kim, as their September writer-in-residence. Angie will be in residence September 12 - 30, and while she is here she will be joining Indian River Area Library's fiction book club while they discuss her best selling novel, Happiness Falls and she will be moderating at the Harbor Springs Festival of the Book on September 26 at 10:30 am. The free event at the Indian River Area Library will take place on September 17 at 5:30 pm and is open to the public. For more information about this event please visit our website at https://goodhartartistresidency.org/events/ .

Kim moved as a preteen from Seoul, South Korea, to the suburbs of Baltimore. After graduating from Interlochen Arts Academy, she studied philosophy at Stanford University and attended Harvard Law School, where she was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. Her debut novel, Miracle Creek, won the Edgar Award and was named one of the 100 best mysteries and thrillers of all time by Time. Happiness Falls, her second novel, was an instant New York Times bestseller, a Good Morning America and B&N book club pick, Virginia Literary Award winner, and Oprah Daily's #1 novel of 2023. Her short fiction and essays have appeared in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Southern Review, New Letters, and Vogue. She is a board member of the PEN/Faulkner Foundation and The Writer's Center.

While in Good Hart, Kim will be working on her third novel, which is about a group of estranged relatives who long to reconnect for one last reunion at a family ancestral gravesite. The work is about the power of physical connection in the absence of speech and language—connection with loved ones and, ultimately, with one's homeland. Being near Lake Michigan in Northern Michigan is special for Angie, a place she considers her artistic home and the place where she began writing her current novel-in-progress, and she is grateful for the opportunity to continue her work here.

The Good Hart Artist Residency is a nonprofit dedicated to giving writers, artists, and composers the time, space, and inspiration to immerse themselves in their creative work amid the scenic landscapes of Northern Michigan. Each resident also offers a community event to share their work and creative process with local audiences. For more information on the Good Hart Artist Residency: goodhartartistresidency.org.
